Startup Sales Consulting | Annual Sales Excellence Program | Corporate Sales Training

23rd June, 2021

This is Subramanian Chandramouli, International Sales Trainer and Author of the books, “Anybody can Sell” “Sales for Startups” and “Don’t Spend money to generate leads”.

I recently took the service of Sapna to shoot the cover page of my 3rd book and for my personal brand promotion. We finalized 30 pictures for my brand promotion.

As I work with Global Startup Accelerators in Europe, Middle East and SAARC nations, they ask my photograph for promotion. I can confidently say that my photograph was well received compared with other global speakers who are part of the program. Sapna’s work is visible across Global platforms and is highly appreciated by my Global clients. Her photos of are adding powerful message in all my promotions. The reason is during her shooting, she understands why a particular photo is needed and will bring out the exact emotions from you. Even though during the shooting you feel tired about it, she will never get tired till she gets what she wants from you.

Sapna’s attention to detail and her commitment to the work is unparalleled. I am glad that I signed up with Sapna for my brand promotion and for my book cover. I can confidently recommend Sapna to any upcoming author and to CEOs and Business owners who are serious about their personal branding.

Regards,

Subramanian Chandramouli
